

shop eat play

Coolangatta - the Southern Gold Coast's retail and dining hub.

☛ Coolangatta caters for every dining whim! Streets throughout the relaxed 'Cooly' precinct are lined with al fresco restaurants and breezy cafes, friendly pubs and clubs, sumptuous a la carte restaurants and creative international cuisine. The Surf Club, overlooking the spectacular Coolangatta Beach, is a perfect spot to enjoy a meal and soak up the ocean vista.

Follow the Seafood Discovery Trail through the Southern Gold Coast and sample some of Australia's finest seafood and fresh local produce. Go to www.seafooddiscoverytrail.com 🛍 Everything you need is right here in Coolangatta! Supermarkets and convenience stores, the air-conditioned Showcase on the Beach shopping mall, designer boutiques and surf shops, beauty and hair salons, specialty stores laden with elegant homewares, gifts and souvenirs, and stunning photography, arts and crafts.

Café D'Bar at Point Danger, the most easterly point on Queensland's mainland.

Rainbow Bay - the Southern Gold Coast's most beautiful picnic spot.

☛ Where in the world can you enjoy a picnic or BBQ in the park and watch a prestigious world championship surfing event take place before your eyes! Rainbow Bay of course.

You can also watch the surf roll in from the Surf Club's Ocean Deck and soak up the sensational views of the entire Southern Gold Coast.

Stroll up the hill from Rainbow Bay to Point Danger and enjoy a picnic or BBQ, or visit one of the Southern Gold Coast's most popular cafes and art galleries, Café D'Bar.

🛍 Rainbow Bay has a number of friendly convenience stores and popular takeaways. If you don't have time to pack a picnic, fish and chips on the beach at Rainbow Bay will be a highlight of your Southern Gold Coast stay!

Kirra - may be one of the Southern Gold Coast's smallest villages, but it's BIG on style!

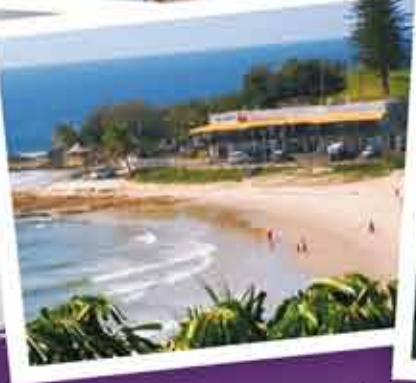

☛ Kirra's main beachfront thoroughfare, Musgrave Street, is lined with trendy cafes and restaurants, perfect for breakfast, lunch or dinner all year round. There are more than a dozen choices for an al fresco breakfast, lunch or dinner 'Kirra style', so take a stroll and take your pick.

The inland Kirra Sports Club or the beachside Surf Clubs at Kirra and North Kirra, all offer friendly, affordable dining and full club facilities.

🛍 After breakfast, browse through Kirra's boutique fashion and homeware stores and visit Kirra Surf, the largest surf store in the Southern Hemisphere.

Showcase on the Beach at Coolangatta.

For information about business, commerce and tourism on the Southern Gold Coast, please contact:

Southern Gold Coast
Chamber of Commerce
PO Box 16, Coolangatta Qld 4225
Ph 07 5536 1181

southern
GOLD COAST

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY

shop eat play

Tugun - find everything you need to enjoy your stay, and a whole lot more!

Tugun's restaurant strip is highly regarded by locals so it's a good idea to book ahead for these popular eateries. Along the Gold Coast Highway at Tugun and Golden Four Drive, an array of restaurants serve cuisine from around the world - Italian, Thai, Indian, Vietnamese and Mexican - and they are all friendly and affordable.

Tugun also has many al fresco cafes, each a perfect spot to enjoy a lazy morning with the paper and a latte or two. The Surf Club also offers great dining, and it's right on the beach.

Tugun's retail centre in Golden Four Drive has a supermarket, giant fruit and vegetable store, specialty gift and homeware stores, beauty and hair salons and business services.

Currumbin - Where Life's A 'beach'!

Gaze across the blue Pacific from one of Currumbin's trendy beachfront restaurants or cafes and you might even spot a whale or two. There are many to choose from along Pacific Parade and the Surf Club balcony is about as close as you can get to the beach without getting wet.

Follow Currumbin Creek from the beach along Duringan Street and you will also discover a cove of quality restaurants and the award winning Currumbin RSL in Currumbin Creek Road.

Planning a night out? Head to the beachfront at Currumbin for clothes, jewellery and accessories to dazzle your family and friends. Allow plenty of time to check out the beach-inspired homewares, surf wear and gift stores, also located along the beachfront.

Currumbin Valley - Country hospitality

Spend a sunny Sunday exploring the fruit and vegetables, and arts and craft market located in Currumbin Valley. Take a short drive up the Tomewin Mountain Road and stop at the Freeman's Roadside stall for fresh local produce.

Currumbin Waters - Suburban style

Alleygators Ruby Union Club is a great spot for relaxed, affordable dining seven days a week. There is also a tavern and family friendly restaurants located in Currumbin Waters. Check out the shopping precinct in Bienvenue Drive.

There are also shops, factory outlets and surf stores in Currumbin Creek Road.

Bilinga - take off on a Bilinga shopping and dining adventure.

The Southern Cross Tavern alongside Gold Coast Airport offers great value family dining seven days a week. Gold Coast Airport also has a wide variety of food outlets to suit every taste and budget.

Every Gold Coast visitor who flies into the Gold Coast visits Bilinga, home to the Gold Coast airport.

'Airport Central' on the highway at Bilinga features stores stocking everything from duty-free shopping and surf wear to health and beauty and fitness. Visit Smiggle for colourful and contemporary stationery.

Before you check in for your flight, allow a little time for some last minute shopping.

shop + dine southern GOLD COAST

the only address you need southerngoldcoast.com.au